

Holocaust & Human Rights Education Center Distinguished Lecture: Dr. David Frey will discuss Africa, the Armed Forces, and Atrocity Prevention

Dr. David Frey is an Associate Professor of History and the Director of the Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies at the United States Military Academy at West Point, where he won the 2010 History Department Teaching Excellence Award. He teaches a range of courses including Western Civilization, Genocide, the Holocaust, Modern German History, Modern Central European History, African History, Fascism, and the History of Race, Nation & Ethnicity. As Director of the Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies, Dr. Frey has spearheaded efforts to increase awareness and understanding of the phenomenon of genocide, history, and means of prevention at West Point, at other service academies, and throughout the Department of Defense. He was a Fulbright Scholar in Hungary in 2012. His West Point projects have been supported by the Army Research Office and the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency.

This lecture will take place on October 4 at 7 PM at the Village of Mamaroneck Courtroom, 169 Mount Pleasant Avenue, Mamaroneck, NY 10543.

For more information, please contact Millie Jasper (914)696-0738 or mjasper@hhrecny.org