The Interpreter

THE INTERPRETER (113 Min.)

80-year-old Ali Ungar comes across a book by a former SS officer describing his wartime activities in Slovakia. Realizing his parents were executed by the officer, Ungar sets out to take revenge but instead finds the officer's 70-year-old son Georg, a retired teacher, who had avoided his father all his life. Georg decides to find out more about his father and offers to be Ali's interpreter on a bittersweet road trip. The two men, opposites in every way, discover a country eager to forget its past and realize their memories are fragments mixed with their imagination and interpretation. With Subtitles.

-OR-

93QUEEN (83 Min.)

Set in the Hasidic enclave of Borough Park, Brooklyn, 93Queen follows a group of tenacious Hasidic women who are smashing the patriarchy in their community by creating the first all-female volunteer ambulance corps in New York City. With unprecedented—and insider—access, the film offers up a unique portrayal of a group of observant women taking matters into their own hands to change their community from within. In English.

-WITH-

KITTY & ELLEN* (16 Min.)

Best friends and Holocaust survivors Kitty and Ellen reflect on the striking resemblance between the contemporary political climate and their past.

* Introduction by Kitty & Ellen filmmaker Leah Galant
