Skip the line at Russ and Daughters and enjoy a delicious brunch at their fabulous location in the Jewish Museum! Next, join our fascinating private tour of the Jewish Museum's Modigliani Unmasked. After our tour concludes feel free to explore the surrounding shops of the Upper East Side on your own, or join a member of the Center for Continuing Ed for a guided stroll by neighboring landmarks and museums. All this and leave the driving to us! Bus leaves from Mamaroneck Harbor Island parking at 10am and returns at 4:00pm.

Modigliani Unmasked is a temporary exhibit at the Jewish Museum through February 4, 2018. The remarkable exhibition showcases approximately 150 works, including a selection of Modigliani's paintings, sculptures and early drawings on loan from collections around the world. Modigliani Unmasked provides fascinating insight into the artist's creative output and heritage as an Italian Sephardic Jew.
